Lunar Rose

Lunar rose is for past life bereavement.

If the etheric cord linking us to loved ones has, in a past life, been cut in a violent or unexpected way, the trauma can be carried through to future lives. Use this remedy for any shocking separation from loved ones. The sudden death of a partner or a child and becoming orphaned are just a few instances that suggest the use of rose.

It is not uncommon for the grieving process to take more than one life time to complete, particularly if the initial bereavement was so deeply wounding. Rose will ease the emotional burden of such bereavement. This type of past life loss can colour present life relationships detrimentally: over-possessiveness and deeply rooted fear of losing a loved one are common manifestations of this karmic condition.

During the later times on the continent of Lemuria, as part of the preparation for the exodus to the newly forming continent of Atlantis, there was a conscious drive to loosen the bonds with the spiritual realms, particularly the links with spiritual companions. The angel of rose appeared on Earth at this time to help this process by strengthening the bonds of love between souls residing on the physical plane.

Lunar rose resonates with aspects between Mars and Chiron placed in the air signs or houses, a strong water element and Pluto on the angle.
